Opening Provisions

The updated Price List is available at www.csob.cz/fees and at the ČSOB and Česká pošta branches. The fees listed in the Accounts and Payments section also apply to the products and services listed in other sections of the Price List.

Besides the fees specified herein, we are also authorised to charge the client for actual expenses charged by third parties and costs charged by other banks and institutions in securing the relevant service as well as postal charges for sending packages (according to the Price List of Česká pošta, s. p.).

The Price List is binding for products and services provided by Československá obchodní banka, a. s., including the products and services provided under its trademark of Poštovní spořitelna. If any contractual documentation or other relevant documentation refers to the Price List of Fees of Poštovní spořitelna, it thereby refers to this Price List as of 1 July 2023.

Fee on the increment of deposits at year end is calculated as the product of the aforementioned percentage and the increment in deposits as of 31 December of the relevant year. ČSOB is entitled to charge the fee once a year, no later than on the second business day of March of the next year. The fee is debited from the fee account of the client in the currency of that account. If the client does not define a fee account, the fee is debited from the current account which has the highest balance on the day of the charge. The current CNB foreign exchange rate is used for conversions between CZK and foreign currencies.

1) The average volume of client's funds during the year is calculated as the sum of positive balances of deposits as of the last day of each month between 1 January and 30 November of the relevant year, divided by the relevant number of months. The calculation considers the sum of funds in current, savings, term and deposit accounts of the client in all currencies as of the last day of the relevant month. The daily balance does not include term deposits with a custom interest rate and deposit bills of exchange.

Fees and other charges for the loss of/damage to the key / magnetic card, change of lock to the box etc. are listed in the Schedule of Fees, Payments and Reimbursements charged in connection with the rental of boxes for some selected services, which, according to the security system and box size, is issued by the particular branch providing the box rental, and which is available at that branch.

Any loss, disappearance, damage or destruction of the contents of the box is covered by the insurance. The insurance does not cover damage to the contents of the box caused by fraudulent or other actions of the renter or other authorised person, internal causes (obsolescence, hidden defects, oxidation or corrosion), war, or radioactive or other radiation; further exemptions from insurance are governed by the conditions of the relevant insurance policy. Further information on the scope of insurance, including possible higher indemnity, is available at www.csob.cz or in the appropriate branches.

These rates also apply to the use of the box after the termination of the contractual relationship.
