II. CEB Service

1. The Client shall be authorized to use the CEB 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
2. The Agreement on the Provision of CEB Service (including the Authorization – Service Holder) and the CEB Agreement (including the Authorization - List of Persons, List of Accounts, Authorization for legal acts) may be concluded in the form of hard copies or electronically (including biometrically) provided the Account Holder (who is also the Service Holder) / Service Holder has arranged the CEB Virtual Branch. An agreement that has been concluded electronically shall be sent by ČSOB to the Service Holder / Account Holder (who is also the Service Holder) to the CEB Virtual Branch.

The CEB Service Activation Agreement may only be concluded electronically by an Authorized Person, and ČSOB shall save the CEB Service Activation Agreement to the ČSOB Identity of the Authorized Person. The Change of CEB Service Settings may be concluded by an Authorized Person in the form of hard copies or electronically, and ČSOB shall send the document to the Authorized Person to the ČSOB Identity service.

If the obligation and the relevant contractual relationship with the Service Holder / Account Holder (who is also the Service Holder) terminate, the Service Holder's contractual or other documentation saved in the CEB Service shall be made inaccessible as of the termination date. If the obligation and the relevant contractual relationship with the Authorized Person terminate, the Authorized Person's contractual or other documentation relating to the CEB Service and saved in the ČSOB Identity service shall be made inaccessible as of the termination date. The Account Holder/Service Holder/Authorized Person shall be obliged to save the documentation in a different storage site prior to the date of termination of the contractual relationship.

3. The use of the CEB Service by the Authorized Person is conditioned on the conclusion of the Identity Agreement and the CEB Service Activation Agreement.
4. Unless stipulated otherwise in the CEB Agreement - List of Accounts attachment, the following functions of the CEB Service are pre-set by ČSOB as follows:
 - a) Four eyes review - not set up
 - b) Modification of imported batch payment files - permitted
 - c) CEB Info (sending of SMS messages; can be set up by the Authorized Person) - permitted
 - d) Business Connector - permitted
5. The CEB Service shall provide an overview of selected products of the Client, agreed within the ČSOB Group. Through the CEB service, the Client can log in to the internet portals of ČSOB subsidiaries and ČSOB contractual partners, thus gaining access to information and services of these subsidiaries and contractual partners. Identification data of the Client shall be transferred for these purposes.
6. Within the CEB Service, the Client may also use the CEB Info service – automatic sending of messages containing information about balance, account movements, payment transactions and other information related to ČSOB Group products via SMS, mobile phone notifications or email. The Authorized Person can set up the sending of the messages on the CEB Portal or in the Mobile Application.

III. CEB Virtual Branch

1. ČSOB and the Service Holder (through the Authorized Person authorized for legal acts) may send Requests and Documents through the CEB Virtual Branch.
2. If ČSOB requires a signature on a Document, the Service Holder shall be obliged to sign (authorize) it using the Qualified Electronic Signature(s) or Advanced Electronic Signature(s) of the Authorized Person(s) so authorized.
3. ČSOB shall sign (Authorize) Documents using the Electronic Seal, Qualified Electronic Signature, Advanced Electronic Signature or scanned signature of a ČSOB staff member so authorized.

An agreement concluded electronically through the CEB Virtual Branch shall become effective upon its execution by all the contracting parties, when the processing of the Request (containing the agreement) in the CEB Virtual Branch is completed by ČSOB and this information is displayed to the Service Holder on the Portal, unless the parties agree otherwise. ČSOB shall approve a request of the Client at the moment the processing of the relevant Request is completed by ČSOB in the CEB Virtual Branch, unless the parties agree otherwise.

4. The Service Holder shall be entitled to change the Authorization for Legal Acts / Authorization - List of Persons / List of Accounts by a unilateral legal act taken in the form of hard copies or electronically through the CEB Service, unless the parties agree otherwise. The Account Holder shall be entitled to change the Authorization - Service Holder by a unilateral legal act taken in the form of hard copies or electronically through the CEB Service, unless the parties agree otherwise. ČSOB shall carry out the change of the duly signed Authorization for Legal Acts/Authorization - List of Persons/List of Accounts / Authorization - Service Holder in the CEB Service no later than the business day immediately following its delivery to ČSOB.
5. ČSOB shall send the Documents signed by the Service Holder and/or ČSOB electronically (including biometrically) to the CEB Virtual Branch. The Service Holder can view and download the Documents through the CEB Virtual Branch for 18 months from the delivery of the Documents to ČSOB. After the period of 18 months elapses, the Service Holder can view and download the Documents in the Document archive folder for the period of duration of the CEB Agreement, but not longer than for the period of statutory recordkeeping.

IV. CEB Internet Banking

1. The provision of CEB Internet Banking is conditioned on the Account Holder and/or Service Holder having an account with ČSOB.
2. CEB Internet Banking enables the Client especially
 - a. to communicate with ČSOB and to enjoy access to selected products and services of ČSOB (and ČSOB Group)
 - b. to make cashless domestic payments

 - c. to perform non-documentary payments, i.e.
 - i. by way of one-off and standing orders for transfers abroad and orders for domestic transfers in foreign currency
 - ii. one-off and standing transfers from/to EU/EEA members states in currencies of EU/EEA member states
 - d. to make transfers between own accounts of the Account Holder/Service Holder who is the account holder
 - e. to request that ČSOB enable the sending of requests for transfer from External Accounts of the Client and the receiving of account statements and information concerning movements in these accounts via the SWIFT network (in relevant formats)
 - f. to obtain information on any performed, pending or rejected payment transactions
 - g. to get an overview of payment cards and to manage them, and to view transactions made with these payment cards
 - h. to manage other selected products, e.g. savings or term accounts
 - i. to make selected types of deals in financial markets (currency conversions) and to confirm such deals
 - j. to place orders for securities transfers within custody services or to view securities accounts and the transaction history of book-entry securities.
 - k. to use the payment service of indirect payment order placement and the payment account information service, where ČSOB, based on the Client's request for the payment account information service, shall provide the payment account information service provider with information on the accounts that the Client manages in ČSOB CEB and at the same time in the ČSOB Electronic Banking (provided the Client has arranged it).
3. The Authorized Person shall have access to any and all information concerning the accounts he/she is authorized to dispose with.

V. Limits

1. The Account Holder, Service Holder, Authorized Person shall be authorized to set the following limits for payments in the CEB Internet Banking:
 - a) the Account Holder shall be authorized to set the following limit

- i. Account Holder's Limit – a daily/weekly limit for the transfer of funds from the relevant account of the Account Holder indicated in the Authorization – Service Holder.
 - b) the Service Holder shall be authorized to set the following limits:
 - i. Service Holder's Limit – a daily/weekly limit for the transfer of funds from the relevant account indicated in the List of Accounts and ČSOB CEB Service setting. The limit does not apply to the transfers of funds between the accounts of the Account Holder / the Service Holder who is also the Account Holder that have been made using the "Transfer between client's accounts" feature, the "withdrawal of deposit" from a savings account feature or the "withdrawal of deposit" from a term deposit feature, nor does it apply to the creation/change/cancellation of a standing order between accounts of the same Account Holder in the amount agreed upon between ČSOB and the Service Holder, which amount is not fixed at the time of the creation/change/cancellation of the standing order, i.e. the amount is determined in another way.
 - ii. Individual Transaction Limit – a limit for an individual payment transaction stipulated in the Payment Service Authorization Rules for the relevant Accounts indicated in the List of Accounts
 - iii. Limit for Authorized Person – a daily/weekly limit for the transfer of funds by the Authorized Person from all the accounts indicated in the Authorization – List of Persons, in which funds with which the Authorized Person is authorized to dispose with are kept. The limit does not apply to the transfers of funds between the accounts of the Account Holder / the Service Holder who is also the Account Holder that have been made using the "Transfer between client's accounts" feature, the "withdrawal of deposit" from a savings account feature or the "withdrawal of deposit" from a term deposit feature, nor does it apply to the creation/change/cancellation of a standing order between accounts of the same Account Holder in the amount agreed upon between ČSOB and the Service Holder, which amount is not fixed at the time of the creation/change/cancellation of the standing order, i.e. the amount is determined in another way.
 - c) The Authorized Person shall be authorized to set the following limits:
 - i. Authorized Person's Limit per authorization method – a weekly limit for a payment transaction authorized by an I.CA Qualified Certificate, Smart Key or SMS key (Mobile Application only). In the event that the said limit is not explicitly stated in the CEB Agreement and furthermore in the event that the Authorized Person has the limit agreed with ČSOB in the CEB Agreement as the "Max. limit amount set by ČSOB", ČSOB will set the limit for the Authorized Person as follows:
 - a. no limit for a transaction authorized by a Certificate
 - b. CZK 20,000,000 for a transaction authorized by Smart Key
 - c. CZK 0 for a transaction authorized by an SMS key

The Authorized Person may change the above-mentioned limit by concluding the Change of ČSOB CEB Service Settings as follows:

 - a. a Certificate up to an unlimited amount
 - b. Smart key up to the amount of CZK 100,000,000
 - c. an SMS key up to the amount of CZK 200,000

The limit does not apply to the transfers of funds between the accounts of the Account Holder / the Service Holder who is also the Account Holder that have been made using the "Transfer between client's accounts" feature, the "withdrawal of deposit" from a savings account feature or the "withdrawal of deposit" from a term deposit feature, nor does it apply to the creation/change/cancellation of a standing order between accounts of the same Account Holder in the amount agreed upon between ČSOB and the Service Holder, which amount is not fixed at the time of the creation/change/cancellation of the standing order, i.e. the amount is determined in another way.
2. If ČSOB provides the CEB Service:
 - to the Account Holder pursuant to the Contract for the Provision of the ČSOB BusinessBanking 24 Service and
 - to the Service Holder pursuant to the Contract for the Use of the ČSOB BusinessBanking 24 Service, then, unless otherwise agreed, only the following transaction limits apply to the CEB Service:
 - a) the Main Limit specified in the Contract for the Provision of the ČSOB BusinessBanking 24 Service
 - b) the Authorized Person's (pair of Authorized Persons') Limit specified in the Contract for the Use of the ČSOB BusinessBanking 24 Service.
 3. If ČSOB provides the CEB Service to the Service Holder pursuant to the Contract for the Provision of ČSOB Electronic Banking Services, then, unless agreed otherwise, only the following transaction limits shall apply to the CEB Service:
 - a) Daily/weekly limits for payment transactions authorized with an SMS key, Smart Key, or through the Smartbanking application, originally specified in the Agreement on the Activation of ČSOB Electronic Banking Services between the Authorized Person and ČSOB. These limits do not add up, and a daily/weekly limit is the sum of all payment transactions delivered to ČSOB via the CEB Service during one day/week. Payment transactions authorized with a Qualified Electronic Signature or Advanced Electronic Signature based on an I.CA Qualified Certificate are not included in these limits; no limit applies to a payment transaction authorized with a Qualified Electronic Signature or Advanced Electronic Signature based on an I.CA Qualified Certificate.

The above-mentioned limits do not apply to the transfers of funds between the Account Holder's accounts that have been made using the "Transfer between client's accounts" feature.

The above-mentioned limits do not apply to direct debit orders, transfers between the accounts of one Account Holder, payment orders (from an account at another bank) placed via the Multibanking service.

- b) The limit for an individual payment transaction made by the Authorized Person in the relevant account is specified in the Authorisation to Dispose of Funds in Accounts via the ČSOB Electronic Banking Services.
4. The limits specified in Article V of the CEB Terms and Conditions do not apply to the cancellation of a standing order, cancellation of an outgoing domestic payment order, cancellation of a cross-border payment order, cancellation of a SEPA transfer, cancellation of a direct debit authorization (standard, O2), cancellation of a withdrawal from a savings account, cancellation/creation/change of a payment template and change in the settings of term deposit parameters.
 5. The limits specified in ~~this~~ Article V of the CEB Terms and Conditions apply to payment transactions performed through the indirect payment order service, where ČSOB is in the position of the provider maintaining the account.

VI. Kate

1. The provisions on Kate set out in the Business Terms and Conditions for ČSOB Identity shall not apply to the Account Holder, Service Holder and Authorized Person who uses Kate in the CEB Service for these purposes.
2. An informative overview of Kate services is available at www.csob.cz/kate and is continuously updated.
3. In order to use some services offered by Kate, the Service Holder may be obliged to conclude an agreement or an amendment to the CEB Agreement; Kate shall notify the Service Holder of this.
4. The Service Holder shall be entitled to negotiate with Kate through Authorized Persons. If the Authorized Person is authorized by the Service Holder to perform legal acts through the CEB Service, he/she shall also be entitled to act and communicate through Kate to the same extent, unless the Service Holder stipulates otherwise. The Service Holder authorized by the Account Holder to perform legal acts through the CEB Service shall also be entitled to act through Kate to the same extent, unless the Account Holder stipulates otherwise.
5. The Authorized Person may actively reach out to Kate and request its assistance; Kate may also reach out to the Service Holder through the Authorized Person. For this purpose, ČSOB shall be entitled to process the Service Holder's or Authorized Person's personal data to a reasonable extent. If the Service Holder or the Authorized Person does not wish to be actively contacted by Kate or to receive notifications from Kate (including CEB Info), he/she may disable the function. The Service Holder may also disable the function for any Authorized Person. The Service Holder's setting of Kate's active messaging function takes precedence over any Authorized Person's setting. A notification may be sent even when the Authorized Person does not have Kate open in the Mobile Application, on the Portal. In order for Kate to function properly, the Authorized Person must enable notifications on his/her device.
6. The Authorized Person shall not disclose sensitive personal information (e.g. information about his/her health) to Kate.
7. Voice communication with Kate is provided by ČSOB through Google services by Google LLC. Voice communication with Kate is recorded for the purpose of servicing and archiving the content of the call. By initiating voice communication with Kate, the Service Holder agrees through the Authorized Person to the Acceptable Use Policy of Google services, the full text of which is available at cloud.google.com/terms/aup. ČSOB shall not be liable for the availability of voice communication or for its interruption due to technical issues.
8. If an offer of a product or service is made to the Service Holder through Kate, it may in some cases be accepted directly through Kate, or Kate may provide the Service Holder with the assistance necessary for its acceptance, e.g. by redirecting him/her to the service provider's website or to a relevant point of contact.
9. ČSOB shall not be liable for any damage incurred to the Service Holder or Authorized Person in connection with using Kate that was caused by the incorrect use of Kate by the Service Holder or Authorized Person, by the incorrect operation of the Service Holder's or Authorized Person's device on which Kate is used, or as a result of a breach of the security measures protecting the Mobile Application or the Portal.
10. The assistance provided by Kate is usually fully automated, which means decisions may be made without human involvement. For more information visit www.csob.cz/osobniudaje.
11. ČSOB shall be entitled to act as a representative or intermediary of the members of the ČSOB Group or contractual partners of the ČSOB Group in Kate. ČSOB shall not be liable for the actions of any other member of the ČSOB Group in Kate.

VII. Statements and Complaints

1. The Account Holder shall be advised of payment transactions in the account by way of a printed account statement, in electronic form through the CEB Service, or in any other agreed manner.
2. The Service Holder may request that statements of account be sent in the form of hard copies or in electronic form through the CEB Service, in formats offered by the CEB Service.
3. In the event that the Account Holder agreed with ČSOB that statements of account would be made out and sent electronically, and the contractual relationship pertaining to the account terminates, the last statement of account shall be sent to the Account Holder in writing, by post, to the mailing address provided by the Account Holder to ČSOB.
4. ČSOB shall make statements of account of an Account Holder/Service Holder who is the account holder available by electronic means, through the CEB Service, on a monthly basis, in PDF format in Czech, unless agreed otherwise. The Service Holder may request a change of frequency of statements or the format of statements in electronic form through the CEB Service.
5. If the Account Holder/Service Holder who is the account holder and ČSOB agreed that statements of account would be made available electronically, such electronic statement of account shall automatically be made available to all the Authorized Persons who are authorized with regard to the relevant account.
6. Making an electronic statement of account available to the Authorized Person shall be deemed to constitute the discharge of the obligation arising to ČSOB under the Act on Payment Systems, i.e., to make the statement of account available to the Account Holder/ Service Holder who is the account holder in the agreed manner.
7. If the Account Holder/Service Holder who is the account holder and ČSOB agreed in the agreement on the account or other contractual document that statements of account would only be made available electronically, and the electronic statement of account is made available through the CEB Service, then information on the electronic statement of account provided in the agreement on the account or other contractual document concluded with the Account Holder does not have to be in harmony with information input by the Service Holder in the CEB Service; in such case, ČSOB shall act in accordance with the request bearing a later date.
8. Statements of account in electronic form are made available in the CEB Service for at least 24 months from the date of issue.
9. The Client shall be obliged to check the statement of account immediately for the flow of reckoning, correctness of the account balance and correctness of the payment transactions performed. If the Client finds any discrepancy in the reckoning, or the absence of reckoning of executable payment orders, the Client shall be obliged to report such defects and request that they be rectified without undue delay upon learning of the defect, or within the term stipulated by applicable legal regulations at the latest.
10. ČSOB shall accept and process complaints and claims of Clients in accordance with its Claims Code which is available at ČSOB branches and at www.csob.cz/reklamace.

VIII. Technical and Security Requirements

1. The Client shall be obliged to install at its own cost, and maintain in a secure and working condition, computer(s) and/or mobile device(s) serving for the use of the CEB Service, in accordance with technical requirements on HW and SW stipulated by ČSOB for the use of the CEB Service by the Client, as set out in manuals and guidelines for the CEB Service published at www.csob.cz/ceb.
2. The Client shall be obliged to have an effective anti-virus protection programme installed, and to carry out a regular anti-virus scan of the computer used for the CEB Service.
3. ČSOB shall be entitled to unilaterally change user manuals, guidelines and the functionality of the CEB Service, especially in connection with the development of new functions and compliance with security requirements and requirements under the legal regulations for electronic banking. ČSOB shall inform the Client of such change in advance in an appropriate manner.
4. The CEB Service is provided over public communication and data lines. ČSOB shall not be liable for their security, and as such, a situation where the Client suffers damage due to any misuse of the transmitted messages, will be out of ČSOB's control.
5. Measures concerning the protection of the security of ČSOB Identity elements, the procedure in case of their loss, theft, misuse or unauthorized use are stipulated in the Identity Terms and Conditions.

IX. Authentication of the Authorized Person in the CEB Service and Authorization of a Legal Act Taken by the Client in the CEB Service

1. The Authorized Person shall be authenticated on the CEB Portal by means of elements of the ČSOB Identity (as described in more detail in the Identity Terms and Conditions, based on the Agreement on Identity), specifically:
 - a) by username, password and Smart Key, or
 - b) by I.CA Commercial Certificate.

If the Service Holder and ČSOB have agreed in the CEB Agreement prior to 1 November 2023 that the Authorized Person shall log in to the CEB Service using the username, password and Smart Key authentication method, then the Authorized Person may also authenticate by scanning a QR code on the CEB Portal login page (ceb.csob.cz) and confirming the authentication with Smart Key in online mode.
2. The Authorized Person shall be authenticated in the Mobile Application by means of elements of the ČSOB Identity (as described in more detail in the Identity Terms and Conditions, based on the Agreement on Identity), specifically:
 - a) by Smart Key, or he/she may be authenticated using a biometric certificate activated through Smart Key, or
 - b) by a username, password and SMS key (if enabled by the Mobile Application)
3. All the details concerning the use of the individual elements of the ČSOB Identity are provided in the Identity Terms and Conditions.
4. When communicating with ČSOB, the Authorized Person shall be authenticated through the Client Centre (as defined in the Identity Terms and Conditions) by means of selected elements of the ČSOB Identity.
5. The Service Holder, or the Authorized Person, shall authorize payment transactions in CEB Internet Banking on the Portal through an I.CA Qualified Certificate or Smart Key of the Authorized Person.
6. The Service Holder, or the Authorized Person, shall authorize payment transactions sent via Business Connector through an I.CA Qualified Certificate of the Authorized Person.
7. The Service Holder, or the Authorized Person, shall authorize payment transactions in CEB Internet Banking using the Mobile Application through Smart Key or an SMS key (if enabled by the Mobile Application).
8. The Service Holder, or the Authorized Person, shall authorize legal acts at the CEB Virtual Branch (where the nature of the act or the CEB Terms and Conditions so require) by the Qualified Electronic Signature / ~~or~~ Advanced Electronic Signature of the Authorized Person.
9. The Service Holder, or the Authorized Person who has been granted the Authorization for service administration, shall authorize legal acts (specified in the definition of the Authorization for service administration in Article I of the CEB Terms and Conditions) in the CEB Service by the Qualified Electronic Signature / Advanced Electronic Signature of the Authorized Person.
10. A payment order and a request for the payment account information service and for the balance confirmation service shall be authorized by the Authorized Person in accordance with the rules for the authorization of payment transactions set out in this Article IX of the CEB Terms and Conditions.

X. Deadlines

1. Deadlines and terms for the delivery of a transfer order, stipulated by ČSOB, are indicated in the Terms and Conditions for Accounts and Payments, accessible on the premises of all ČSOB branches and at www.csob.cz.
2. Payment transactions in accounts through the CEB Service shall be performed by ČSOB pursuant to an order placed by a duly authorized/empowered Authorized Person. Payment transactions in accounts must be in compliance with:
 - a) CEB Terms and Conditions, CEB Agreement, Agreement on the Provision of CEB Service, CEB Service Activation Agreement, Identity Agreement
 - b) Terms and Conditions for Accounts and Payments, the relevant account agreement
 - c) legal regulations
3. The following cannot be revoked through the CEB Service:
 - a) transfer (between accounts of one and the same Account Holder / the Service Holder who is also the Account Holder) that has been made using the "Transfer between client's accounts" feature
 - b) payment transaction on its due date
 - c) domestic direct debit order on the day preceding its due date (on the due date if the person from whose account the direct debit is made has an account with a bank other than ČSOB)
 - d) request for transfer from an account held with another bank after it has been sent to the bank holding the account
4. A payment transaction with a future due date, placed through the CEB Service, can be:

- a) in case of domestic payments, revoked or modified through the CEB Service no later than the day immediately preceding the due date, within the time period stipulated in the Terms and Conditions for Accounts and Payments.
- b) in case of cross-border payments, revoked or amended through the CEB Service no later than 5 p.m. on the day immediately preceding the due date.

Authorization by a single Authorized Person shall suffice for the revocation, or cancellation of a partially authorized payment transaction.

Revocation of a transaction by way of a written application for cancellation of the payment transaction, delivered to a ČSOB branch, is possible within time periods provided for in the Terms and Conditions for Accounts and Payments.

XI. Rights, Obligations and Liability of the Client

1. The Client shall be obliged to become thoroughly acquainted with the CEB Terms and Conditions, and to comply with them, and further, to become acquainted with the relevant user manuals and guidelines relating to the CEB Service and published at www.csob.cz/ceb, and shall be obliged to follow the procedures stipulated therein.
2. The Client shall be obliged to use the CEB Service, communication devices used in connection with the CEB Service (e.g. mobile phone, computer) and the elements of the ČSOB Identity (e.g. user name and password, chip card PIN) in accordance with the CEB Terms and Conditions, Identity Terms and Conditions and security rules published at www.csob.cz/bezpecnost.
3. The Client shall be obliged to acquaint itself with notices displayed in the CEB Service with regard to amendments to the CEB Terms and Conditions and the Pricelist, and to follow security warnings displayed in the CEB Service.
4. The Client shall be entitled to direct its requests and queries concerning the CEB Service to the Client Centre (CEB Service helpdesk), whose telephone number and email address are provided on the CEB Portal.

XII. Rights, Obligations and Liability of ČSOB

1. ČSOB shall accept from the Client only instructions containing complete data in prescribed formats, authorized in the manner required by ČSOB. ČSOB shall not be liable for any damage resulting from a failure to carry out incomplete or unauthorized instructions. ČSOB shall not be liable for any potential damage caused as a result of erroneous or duplicated instructions given by the Client to ČSOB through the CEB Service.
2. The Bank shall inform Clients about current cyber attacks and their manifestations at www.csob.cz/bezpecnost, if the Bank possesses such information.
3. ČSOB shall be entitled to block a payment means / the CEB Service for reasons relating to the security of the payment means / CEB Service, in particular as a result of a suspicion of unauthorized or fraudulent use of the payment means / CEB Service.

Prior to blocking a payment means / the CEB Service, or if this is not possible, immediately afterwards, ČSOB shall inform the Authorized Person, in a manner defined in Article XII (2) of the CEB Terms and Conditions, of the blocking of the payment means / CEB Service and the grounds for their blocking, unless informing the Authorized Person could defeat the purpose for which the payment means or CEB Service are being blocked or unless such blocking contravenes other legal regulations.

If a payment means / the CEB Service is blocked, the indirect payment order service, the payment account information service and the balance confirmation service cannot be used.

4. ČSOB shall not be liable for the impossibility to use the CEB Service, or for the malfunction or unavailability of the CEB Service, where caused directly or indirectly by causes outside the control of ČSOB or its partners as a result of vis majeure, international sanctions within the meaning of legal regulations on the implementation of international sanctions, natural disasters, hardware defects, malfunction of another manufacturer's program, infection of the Client's computer or mobile device, or other events.
5. In the event of any breach of contractual duties, ČSOB shall be liable solely to the Client (and not to any person supposed to have benefitted from the discharge of the agreed duty).
6. If a natural person who is listed as an Authorized Person in the Authorization - List of Persons or Authorization for Legal Acts (annexed to the CEB Agreement) does not visit a ČSOB branch for the purpose of identification within six months from the authorization date in compliance with legislation in force and does not conclude the Agreement on ČSOB Identity and the CEB Service Activation Agreement with ČSOB, ČSOB is entitled to:
 - stop referring to the person as an Authorized Person on the CEB Portal
 - request that the Service Holder present a new authorization replacing the original one (a new Authorization - List of Persons or Authorization for Legal Acts) if the Service Holder requires that the person be an Authorized Person even after lapse of the period of six months.

7. ČSOB shall be entitled to withdraw from the Agreement on the Provision of ČSOB CEB Service or CEB Agreement in the event that:
- the Client's actions are in conflict with the CEB Terms and Conditions (without prior notice to the Client);
 - the duration of the obligations under the Agreement on the Provision of ČSOB CEB Service or CEB Agreement, or the use of the CEB Service become unacceptable or unlawful for ČSOB due to the existence of relevant laws or internal policy of ČSOB or the KBC Group.

XIII. Communication

1. Unless these CEB Terms and Conditions stipulate otherwise, any and all communication between ČSOB and the Client in connection with the Agreement on the Provision of the CEB Service/ CEB Agreement/ CEB Service Activation Agreement shall be governed by the following rules.
2. Unless agreed otherwise, communication between ČSOB and the Clients shall be conducted in Czech, as follows:
 - a) in person – by visiting a ČSOB branch
 - b) by telephone / SMS sent to the Client's mobile device
 - c) in writing (in the form of hard copies)
 - d) electronically (in particular via email or data mailbox; the Client may communicate with ČSOB via data mailbox provided that ČSOB is able to verify the Client's identity and all requirements for the relevant legal acts are met)
 - e) through the CEB Service
 - f) through the Client Centre (CEB Service helpdesk)
 - g) through Kate
3. Documents to be delivered by a provider of postal services shall be sent by ČSOB:
 - a) to natural persons
 - to the contact address provided in the Agreement on Identity, Agreement on the Provision of the CEB Service, CEB Agreement or the CEB Service Activation Agreement (if specified herein) or in another document; the address of a ČSOB branch or a P.O. Box cannot constitute an agreed address,
 - to the permanent residence address; ČSOB shall be entitled to send documents to the permanent residence address in all cases where it deems necessary in light of the circumstances,
 - if the Client provides ČSOB a residential address ČSOB shall be entitled to send documents to such residential address as well.
 - b) to natural persons - business persons, and to legal entities to the address of their seat provided in the Agreement on the Provision of the CEB Service, CEB Agreement, or to an agreed delivery address; the address of a ČSOB branch or a P.O. BOX cannot constitute a delivery address.
4. The Client is obliged to ensure that consignments are accepted at the above-mentioned addresses, and the breach of this obligation is considered to be a deliberate failure to accept the consignments. In the case of consignments sent to an agreed address to the addressee only or using a certificate of delivery, which have been returned to ČSOB as undeliverable (irrespective of the reason), the effects of delivery shall occur on the day of its return to ČSOB. Other consignments sent to an agreed address shall be deemed to have been delivered to the Client on the 3rd business day after its dispatch within the Czech Republic, and on the 15th business day if sent abroad. If a document sent to the Client is returned by a provider of postal services as undeliverable, ČSOB shall be entitled to completely terminate the sending of consignments concerning the CEB Service. Effects of delivery shall occur even in case that the Client refuses to take delivery of the document sent.
5. Where documents are submitted in any language other than Czech or Slovak, ČSOB shall be entitled to request that the Client submit a certified translation of such documents, translated at the Client's cost. ČSOB shall not be liable for any default in the performance of the service caused by the necessity to have a document translated.
6. Where documents are made out in a territory of any country other than the Czech Republic, ČSOB requires the Client to have such documents superlegalized by the relevant authorities.

XIV. Final Provisions

1. The condition for the provision of the CEB Service to the Authorized Person listed in:
 - a) the Authorisation to Dispose of Funds Deposited in Accounts - ČSOB BusinessBanking 24 - Authorized Persons, which is annexed to the Contract for the Use of the ČSOB BusinessBanking 24 Service, or
 - b) the Authorisation to Dispose of Funds Deposited in Accounts via the ČSOB Electronic Banking Services, which is an attachment to the Contract for the Provision of ČSOB Electronic Banking Services, is that the Authorized Person concludes the CEB Service Activation Agreement (electronically) and the Agreement on ČSOB Identity (at a ČSOB branch) with ČSOB.

2. ČSOB shall keep confidential any and all facts that are subject to bank secrecy under the law. ČSOB shall keep such information confidential even after the contractual relationship with the Client ends. ČSOB shall disclose information that is subject to bank secrecy solely to the persons and institutions authorized for that purpose pursuant to the law and contractual arrangements with the Client, and to the business partners who are authorized by ČSOB to perform specific activities or who offer, sell or manage products of the ČSOB Group in order to fulfil a business agreement, including the settlement of claims.
3. ČSOB shall be entitled to provide Confidential Information to companies belonging to the ČSOB Group. Confidential Information may be used by the companies belonging to the ČSOB Group in particular for the purpose of servicing and taking care of the Client, including marketing and offers of products and services of the companies of the ČSOB Group and their business partners, e.g. in the form of commercial offers via email. For the above defined purposes, ČSOB shall be entitled to provide Confidential Information about the Client – legal entity also to persons from the KBC Group.
4. ČSOB shall be entitled to charge fees to the Account Holder/Service Holder for banking services according to the Pricelist. ČSOB shall be entitled to collect fees for the issuance and renewal of the Certificate for the CEB Service from the Account Holder/Service Holder's account designated by the Authorized Person. If the Authorized Person does not designate any account, ČSOB may collect the fee from any account of the Account Holder/Service Holder.
5. The CEB Provision Agreement shall terminate in the event that the obligation arising from the last account agreement under which the Account Holder is provided the CEB Service ceases to exist and the Account Holder no longer has an account with ČSOB connected to CEB, on the termination date of the account agreement.
6. The CEB Agreement concluded with the Service Holder shall terminate in the event that all the agreements on the accounts connected to the CEB Service under the CEB Agreement and all the agreements on the accounts from which ČSOB is entitled to collect fees related to the CEB Service under the CEB Agreement are terminated, as follows:
 - If the last of the above-mentioned agreements is terminated in the first two calendar months of a calendar quarter, the CEB Agreement shall terminate on the last day of the calendar quarter.
 - If the last of the above-mentioned agreements is terminated in the last calendar month of a calendar quarter, the CEB Agreement shall terminate on the last day of the following calendar quarter.
7. The CEB Service Activation Agreement shall be concluded for an indefinite period of time. Both contracting parties are entitled to terminate the CEB Service Activation Agreement without giving any reason. If terminated by the Authorized Person, the CEB Service Activation Agreement shall terminate upon delivery of the notice to ČSOB; if terminated by ČSOB, the CEB Service Activation Agreement shall terminate upon expiry of the notice period. The notice period shall be two months and shall commence on the first day of the calendar month following the delivery of the notice.

If the Authorized Person has been authorized for legal acts by one Service Holder under a (single) CEB Agreement, the termination of the CEB Agreement shall also terminate the CEB Service Activation Agreement. If the Authorized Person is authorized for legal acts by multiple Service Holders under more multiple CEB Agreements, the CEB Service Activation Agreement shall terminate upon the termination of the last CEB Agreement. The termination of the Agreement on Identity shall also terminate the CEB Service Activation Agreement.
8. ČSOB shall process the Client's personal data during the pre-contractual negotiations as well as when performing the agreement in which the Client is a contractual party. More detailed information concerning personal data processing is provided in "Information on Personal Data Processing", available at www.csob.cz, or on the operating premises of ČSOB's branches.
9. The Client shall be liable for the recency, accuracy and completeness of all your data provided to ČSOB, and shall notify any changes to such data to ČSOB without undue delay, and evidence such change of data by presenting a valid proof of identity or other document showing such change, save for changes of delivery address or residential address, if applicable, where the Client shall only notify such change.
10. In the process of provision of Services, ČSOB is obliged to make an identification and a due diligence check of the Client or the person representing the Client, and in case of a legal entity, to identify the controlling person and beneficial owner of the legal entity, or of a legal entity serving as a member of the Client's a statutory body. ČSOB shall carry out such identification in accordance with the law and to the extent stipulated by the law in particular in case of transactions exceeding the threshold stipulated by law. In the event that the Client (or the person representing the Client) refuses to comply with the required scope of identification, the bank service requested shall not be provided. ČSOB is obliged to refuse to provide bank services on an anonymous basis. Pursuant to legal regulations on measures against the legalization of proceeds of crime and terrorist financing, ČSOB shall be entitled to request, as part of a due diligence check and at any time while the contractual relationship with the Client exists, that the Client provide additional identification data concerning the Client, the persons representing the Client, or, in case of a legal entity, concerning the controlling person and its beneficial owner, by submitting documents or information requested by ČSOB, in particular proof of origin of funds remitted into the Client's account, evidence of the Client's good financial standing, obligations or trustworthiness, and the Client shall be obliged to procure same. ČSOB shall also be entitled to request the immediate submission of documents/information necessary to assess whether a particular transaction or trade complies with the KBC Group Embargo policy available at www.csob.cz (section ČSOB, ČSOB Policies). ČSOB may make photocopies of any documents submitted by the Client that are related to the fulfilment of the identification and a due diligence check of the Client for the purposes of Act No. 253/2008 Coll., as amended, and to process the information obtained to fulfil the purposes of this Act. ČSOB is entitled to decline to carry out any transaction of the Client that is associated with the risk of legalization of proceeds of crime or terrorist financing, or where there is a suspicion that it might be subject to international sanctions within the meaning of legal regulations on the implementation of international sanctions, or to decline to make any transactions of the Client which ČSOB reasonably believes to be non-compliant with the law and ČSOB's procedures thereunder, the CEB Provision Agreement, the CEB Agreement, the CEB Service Activation Agreement or the KBC Group Embargo policy. If ČSOB exercises such right, it shall not be liable for any damages that may arise (e.g. as a result of a failure to execute or a delay in executing a payment transaction).

As part of the identification and a due diligence check, the Client shall submit to ČSOB in particular documents certifying his/her/its existence (or incorporation documents if the legal entity has already been established but has not yet come into existence), the manner of acting on behalf of the legal entity, who is the controlling person and beneficial owner of the Client, and documents certifying the authorization to conduct business; ČSOB may require that these documents are not older than 3 months. For identification purposes, a natural person who is a citizen of the Czech Republic usually presents an ID card; a citizen of another country usually presents a passport or other documents required by ČSOB. A natural person is obliged to immediately notify ČSOB of the theft or loss of his/her identity document.

11. In the event that any provision of these CEB Terms and Conditions, Agreement on the Provision of the CEB Service, CEB Agreement or the CEB Service Activation Agreement is or becomes refutable or unenforceable, the validity or enforceability of the other provisions of these CEB Terms and Conditions, Agreement on the Provision of the CEB Service, CEB Agreement or the CEB Service Activation Agreement shall not be prejudiced, provide that such provision can be severed from these CEB Terms and Conditions, Agreement on the Provision of the CEB Service, CEB Agreement or the CEB Service Activation Agreement as a whole, and provided that the legal act would presumably have occurred even in the absence of such an invalid part, had ČSOB recognized its invalidity in time. ČSOB and the Client shall make best effort to replace such provisions with a new provision with a content and effect as close as possible to the invalid, refutable or unenforceable provision.
12. The Client, if a business person, and ČSOB depart from the applicable legal regulations on contracts of adhesion. As a result, the potential invalidity of the provisions of these CEB Terms and Conditions or Agreement on the Provision of the CEB Service/CEB Agreement/CEB Service Activation Agreement as non-compliant with such provisions on contracts of adhesion, in particular:
 - a) clauses referring to conditions outside the wording proper of the relevant contractual document, where the Client was not advised of their meaning and does not possess demonstrable knowledge of their meaning;
 - b) clauses which can be read only with great difficulty, or clauses that are incomprehensible to a person of average mental capabilities, even if detrimental to the Client and where the meaning thereof was not sufficiently explained to the Client; and
 - c) clauses that are particularly onerous for the Client for no reasonable reason, especially if the relevant contractual document deviates seriously and for no special reason from customary conditions agreed in customary cases, is hereby excluded.

13. ČSOB shall be authorized to propose an amendment to these CEB Terms and Conditions to an appropriate extend due to:
 - changes in legislation, its interpretation, or changes in standards applicable to the banking market,
 - changes in the situation on financial markets or the banking services market,
 - developments in market and risk indicators, including capital adequacy requirements,
 - developments in technology and security of banking services,
 - optimization of banking products and services, or
 - changes in business policy.

If the Client is a natural person – business person or a legal entity, information on the proposed amendments shall be provided by ČSOB at www.csob.cz/podminky no later than one month before the proposed effective date of such amendment, which shall be notified to the Client via a message sent to the CEB Service, account statement, letter or by email or data message.

If the Client is a natural person (consumer), information on the proposed amendments shall be provided by ČSOB usually via the CEB Service or an account statement, or by email, a letter or data message no later than two months before the proposed effective date of such amendment; the proposal shall further be posted at www.csob.cz/podminky. ČSOB shall notify the Client – natural person (consumer) of the fact that the proposed amendment has been saved to the CEB Service by email or an SMS message.
