New DTT signed between Czech Republic and Malta

A new Treaty on the avoidance of double taxation in the field of income taxes and on the prevention of tax evasion and avoidance was signed between the Czech Republic and the Republic of Malta on 24th September 2025 in Rome.

The standard legislative process leading to the entry into force of the Treaty and its subsequent practical implementation will now follow in both countries.

The Treaty between the Czech Republic and Malta on the avoidance of double taxation in the field of income taxes and on the prevention of tax evasion and avoidance, signed in Crans Montana on 21st June 1996, shall cease to be in force on the date on which provisions of this new Treaty enter into effect.

Further details, e.g., the rates for taxation of income from both dividends and interest will be communicated once the Treaty will be published in the collection of laws of the Czech Republic.

Impact on foreign investors:
